The Consortium CARE Scheme

PRIVACY POLICY

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 In this Policy:

1.1.1 references to we, us, Trustee or our means Vidett Trust Corporation Limited, a limited company registered in England (company number: 10842337), whose registered office is at 3rd Floor Forbury Works, 37-43 Blagrove Street, Reading RG1 1PZ; and

1.1.2 references to you or your means any individual whose personal information we hold.

2. PRIVACY POLICY

2.1 This Policy sets out the basis on which we collect and use personal information about you in our capacity as Trustee of the Consortium CARE Scheme (the Scheme).

2.2 This Policy describes in detail who is responsible for the personal information that we collect about you, what personal information we collect, how we will use such personal information, who we disclose it to and your rights and choices in relation to your personal information.

2.3 In this Policy where we use the words personal information we use these words to describe information that is about you and which identifies you.

2.4 In this Policy:

2.4.1 Section 4 sets out the types of personal information we collect and use about Scheme members and users of our website;

2.4.2 Section 5 sets out the types of personal information we collect and use about Scheme members; and

2.4.3 Section 7 sets out the types of personal information we collect and use about a Scheme member's potential beneficiaries and other third parties.

3. WHO IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE PERSONAL INFORMATION THAT WE COLLECT?

3.1 We are the data controller for the purpose of data protection law in respect of your personal information collected and used in connection with the Scheme. This is because we dictate the purpose for which your personal information is used and how we use your personal information.

3.2 The Scheme actuary is considered a "joint data controller" for the purposes of the General Data Protection Regulation, as incorporated into UK Law (UK GDPR). For example, the Scheme actuary uses your personal information to advise the Trustee on the financial management of the Scheme. This advice helps to ensure the Trustee is able to meet its obligations to pay members' benefits, and is necessary to comply with obligations placed on it by legislation, including the Pensions Act 2004. The Scheme actuary can be contacted as follows: Ruth Thomas; Barnett Waddingham LLP, 3 Devon Way, Longbridge, Birmingham B31 2TS; 0333 11 11 222; Consortium@barnett-waddingham.co.uk.

3.3 We have agreed with the Scheme actuary that we as the Trustee will be responsible for dealing with requests from you in respect of your rights if those requests relate to the joint use of your personal information described in this Policy. This means if you wish to exercise rights against the Trustee and the Scheme actuary for what they do jointly with your personal information, you could contact us as set out below.

4. WHAT PERSONAL INFORMATION DO WE HOLD ABOUT YOU?

4.1 We collect and use personal information about you in the course of acting as Trustee of the Scheme. The personal information we collect includes:

- 4.1.1 Contact information – your name, address, email and telephone number;
- 4.1.2 General information – your gender, marital and family status, date and place of birth;
- 4.1.3 Identification information – your social security or national insurance number, passport number, tax identification number, driver's licence number, entitlement to reside in the UK or other government issued identification number;
- 4.1.4 Employment information – details of your employer and employment history (including contribution history and salary data);
- 4.1.5 Benefit preferences information – information concerning your nominated beneficiary of any death benefit payment you are entitled to;
- 4.1.6 Financial information – your HMRC tax code, bank account number, or other financial account number and account details, and details relating to investment and pension assets held outside the Scheme;
- 4.1.7 Technical and usage information – details of your internet protocol (IP) address, browser type and version, time zone setting and location, browser plug-in types and versions, operating system and platform, device ID and other technology on the devices you use to access this website and information about how you interact with and use our website; and
- 4.1.8 Dashboard information – your date of birth, your Scheme membership start and end dates, your employer's name, your accrued pension value and your estimated retirement income.

5. SPECIAL CATEGORIES OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

- 5.1 We may also collect certain sensitive personal information about you.
- 5.2 You will provide us with information about your physical and mental health including any medical conditions, in connection with any application for ill-health retirement, or sexual life and orientation, in connection with establishing what benefits may be payable under the Scheme on your death or following a divorce or dissolution of your civil partnership.
- 5.3 There is the ability to retire under the Scheme, in certain circumstances, on ill health grounds. You may provide us with information about your current or previous physical, mental or medical condition, health status, injury or disability information, medical diagnosis, medical procedures performed and treatment given personal habits (for example, smoking or consumption of alcohol), prescription information, and medical history of you and your family. We may also obtain this information from medical practitioners.
- 5.4 You may also provide certain information voluntarily to us.

6. HOW IS YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION COLLECTED?

1.1 We use different methods to collect personal information from and about you including:

- 1.1.1 Your interactions with us. You may give us your personal information by filling in online forms or by corresponding with us by post, phone, email or otherwise.

1.1.2 Automated technologies or interactions. As you interact with our website, we will automatically collect information about your equipment, browsing actions and patterns. We collect this personal data by using cookies and other similar technologies.

1.1.3 From third parties or publicly available sources. We will receive personal information about you from various third parties and public sources. This information may include the following:

- (a) information from RM Educational Resources Limited or other group companies, each in its capacity as your employer or former employer (as appropriate);
- (b) information from the administrator of the Scheme;
- (c) information from another pension provider (if you have transferred in any other pension benefits);
- (d) information about criminal records or civil litigation history (for example, for preventing, detecting and investigating fraud); and
- (e) following the death of a member, information about that member or his potential beneficiaries for the purposes of receiving death benefits (which may come from other potential beneficiaries or from relatives, solicitors, executors, schools, etc.).

7. INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR POTENTIAL BENEFICIARIES AND OTHER THIRD PARTIES

7.1 In the course of your membership of, or other involvement with, the Scheme, you may provide us with personal information relating to potential beneficiaries (e.g. individuals who could receive benefits on your death or following your divorce or dissolution of your civil partnership) and other third parties.

7.2 The personal information we collect in respect of potential beneficiaries may include:

7.2.1 their name, address and date of birth;

7.2.2 their marital and family status;

7.2.3 their national insurance number;

7.2.4 information about their gender and sexual orientation;

7.2.5 information about their medical history and current medical condition; and their bank details.

7.3 You may also provide us with contact details for other third parties such as other pension providers or financial advisers.

7.4 We will use this personal information in accordance with this Policy. If you are providing personal information to us relating to a potential beneficiary or other third party, you confirm that you have informed the potential beneficiary or other third party that you have shared their personal information with us and that you have made the information in this Policy available to the potential beneficiary or other third party.

8. WHAT LEGAL REASON DO WE HAVE FOR USING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

8.1 The law requires us to have a legal basis for collecting and using your personal information. We rely on one or more of the following legal bases:

8.1.1 performance of a contract with you: Where we need to perform a contract we are about to enter into or have entered into with you.

8.1.2 legitimate interests: We may use your personal information where it is necessary to conduct our Scheme business and pursue our legitimate interests, for example to prevent fraud and enable us to give you the best and most secure membership experience. We make sure we consider and balance any potential impact on you and your rights (both positive and negative) before we process your personal information for our legitimate interests. We do not use your personal information for activities where our interests are overridden by the impact on you (unless we have your consent or are otherwise required or permitted to by law). Those legitimate Scheme business interests will typically be one or more of the following:

- (a) complying with applicable legal and regulatory obligations and any codes of practice;
- (b) conducting a valuation of the Scheme to ensure that there are sufficient funds to meet the liabilities of the Scheme;
- (c) maintaining accurate records and ensuring that the Scheme is administered in accordance with the Trust Deed and Rules;
- (d) undertaking risk management exercises;
- (e) fulfilling our disclosure requirements, including issuing summary funding statements;
- (f) notifying you of any changes to your pension benefits;
- (g) contacting you and providing information about any retirement options or transfer offers the Trustee and or the employer make available;
- (h) processing transfer requests or quotations requested as part of a divorce;
- (i) obtaining relevant background information when exercising any discretion under the Scheme Rules;
- (j) complying with our obligations to notify HMRC and the Pensions Regulator of certain events;
- (k) managing the impact of any change to the legal status of the sponsoring company; and
- (l) to keep our website up to date and relevant.

8.1.3 legal obligation: We may use your personal information where it is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation that we are subject to. For example, where it is necessary to comply with The Pensions Dashboards Regulations 2022.

8.1.4 consent: We rely on consent only where we have obtained your active agreement to use your personal information for a specified purpose, for example if you subscribe to an email newsletter.

8.2 Where we use special categories of personal information (such as health and sexual orientation data where necessary to pay an ill health or dependant's pension) our legal basis for doing so will be explicit consent.

9. WHY DO WE USE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

9.1 We may process the personal information we collect about you for purposes which include:

9.1.1 to communicate with you;

- 9.1.2 to assess and process transfer requests;
  - 9.1.3 to notify you about changes to the Scheme and any retirement options or transfer offers;
  - 9.1.4 to manage and administer the Scheme;
  - 9.1.5 to prepare Scheme valuations and ensure sufficient funding;
  - 9.1.6 in connection with any potential or actual arrangement by which the Scheme secures an income stream from an insurance company to supplement the financial support provided by RM Educational Resources Limited (and other group companies) to the Scheme or by which your particular benefits are secured with a recognised insurance company;
  - 9.1.7 to enable us to decide who should receive benefits on your death;
  - 9.1.8 to identify you to ensure that you receive the correct amount of benefit;
  - 9.1.9 to pay your benefit entitlement;
  - 9.1.10 to enable the government to provide find and view services in relation to certain pensions schemes; and
  - 9.1.11 to administer our website (including troubleshooting, data analysis, testing, system maintenance and support).
- 9.2 We will only use your personal information for the reason we collected it, or for a closely related reason. For example, we might use it to improve our services, carry out audits, or prevent fraud. If we ever need to use your information for something very different, we will let you know and ask for your permission if the law says we need to. In some cases, we may use your information without telling you – such as when the law requires us to do so for safety, legal, or public interest reasons.
- 9.3 We may be required to obtain your personal information to comply with our legal requirements or to enable us to fulfil our duties as Trustee of the Scheme. If you do not provide the relevant personal information to us, we may not be able to meet these requirements and our ability to process your benefits under the Scheme may be impacted.

10. TO WHOM MAY WE DISCLOSE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

- 10.1 We will share your personal information with:
- 10.1.1 the Scheme administrators;
  - 10.1.2 the Scheme actuary;
  - 10.1.3 the Scheme secretary;
  - 10.1.4 the employer and other group companies participating in the Scheme and their advisers;
  - 10.1.5 (where required) our professional advisers, including accountants, lawyers, investment consultants, other professional advisers and suppliers/service providers (for example, IT service providers) that assist us in carrying out our activities as Trustee of the Scheme;
  - 10.1.6 government authorities and agencies (such as the Money and Pensions Service, HMRC, the Pension Protection Fund and the Pensions Regulator); and
  - 10.1.7 other third parties such as other pension providers, insurers, intermediaries, Independent Financial Advisers, medical advisers and agents.
- 10.2 We will also disclose your personal information to other third parties, for example:

- 10.2.1 if we are under a duty to disclose or share your personal information in order to comply with any legal obligation, or in order to fulfil our duties as Trustee of the Scheme; and
- 10.2.2 in connection with any potential or actual arrangement by which the Scheme secures an income stream from an insurance company to supplement the financial support provided by RM Educational Resources Limited (and other group companies) to the Scheme or by which your particular benefits are secured with a recognised insurance company.

11. WHERE WILL WE TRANSFER YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

- 11.1 Wherever possible, we would seek to ensure that personal information is not transferred out of the UK. However, the manner in which the Scheme is administered may involve the transfer of your personal information to third parties outside the UK. We will implement appropriate and suitable safeguards to ensure that, in the event of any transfers of personal information outside of the UK, such personal information will be protected as required by applicable data protection law. Where we transfer personal information outside the UK, this will be governed by binding corporate rules or standard contractual clauses as appropriate.
- 11.2 If you choose to send us information via the internet there is a risk because it is not completely secure. Once we have received your personal information, we will use strict procedures and security features to try to prevent unauthorised access.

12. HOW LONG WILL WE KEEP YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

- 12.1 We will keep personal information relating to you, and your potential beneficiaries for the duration of your membership (including as a pensioner member) and for a period of 12 years after the final benefit is made in relation to your membership.
- 12.2 If you transfer your benefits out of the Scheme, we will keep a record of the transfer for a period of 75 years after the transfer so as to be able to demonstrate that a transfer was made and in order to address potential queries relating to the value of your benefits.
- 12.3 We will keep any sensitive personal information only for so long as we have a legitimate reason to hold that information. For example if we obtain medical information in connection with the consideration of your eligibility to receive (or continue to receive) an incapacity pension, we will only hold that information for as long as the pension is subject to review. Sensitive information (other than medical information) will be held for no more than 12 months unless we and the individual to whom the sensitive personal information relates agree otherwise.
- 12.4 In the event that the Scheme winds up or we cease to be Trustee of the Scheme, we may enter into an agreement to transfer the personal information we hold to another party.

13. YOUR RIGHTS

You have certain rights with respect to your personal information. These rights only apply in certain circumstances and are subject to certain exemptions. Please see the table below for a summary of your rights. You can exercise these rights by contacting the Scheme secretary, at Vidett, 3rd Floor Forbury Works, 37-43 Blagrove Street, Reading, RG1 1PZ, or via email at RMPLC@vidett.com

Summary of your rights
Right of access to your personal information	You have the right to receive a copy of your personal information that we hold about you, subject to certain exemptions.
Right to rectify your personal information	You have the right to ask us to correct your personal information that we hold where it is incorrect or incomplete.

	Summary of your rights
Right to erasure of your personal information:	You have the right to ask that your personal information be deleted in certain circumstances. For example (i) where your personal information is no longer necessary for the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise used; (ii) if you withdraw your consent and there is no other legal ground for which we rely on for the continued use of your personal information; (iii) if you object to the use of your personal information (as set out below); (iv) if we have used your personal information unlawfully; or (v) if your personal information needs to be erased to comply with a legal obligation.
Right to restrict the use of your personal information	You have the right to suspend our use of your personal information in certain circumstances. For example (i) where you think your personal information is inaccurate so that our use of your information is suspended for such period as is necessary to enable us to verify the accuracy of your personal information; (ii) the use of your personal information is unlawful and you oppose the erasure of your personal information and request that it is suspended instead; (iii) we no longer need your personal information, but your personal information is required by you for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims; or (iv) you have objected to the use of your personal information and we are verifying whether our grounds for the use of your personal information override your objection.
Right to data portability	You have the right to obtain your personal information in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and for it to be transferred to another organisation, where it is technically feasible. The right only applies where the use of your personal information is based on your consent or for the performance of a contract, and when the use of your personal information is carried out by automated (i.e. electronic) means.
Right to object to the use of your personal information	You have the right to object to the use of your personal information in certain circumstances. For example where you have grounds relating to your particular situation and we use your personal information for our legitimate interests (or those of a third party). You also have an absolute right to object to the use of your personal information for direct marketing purposes.
Right to withdraw consent	You have the right to withdraw your consent at any time where we rely on consent to use your personal information.
Right to complain	You have a right to make a complaint if you think that there has been an infringement of the data protection laws in connection with your personal data. You also have a right to complain if you ever make a data subject access request and you are not satisfied with our response to that request. Please contact us for details of the complaints process and the complaint form which can be used for the purpose of making a complaint (but please note that you may complain in the medium which best suits you). This does not affect your legal right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office, which is the UK data protection supervisory authority. You can obtain further information about these rights from the Information Commissioner's Office at: www.ico.org.uk or via their telephone helpline (0303 123 1113).

14. CHANGES TO THIS POLICY

Any changes we make to this Policy in the future will be agreed at a Trustee meeting. This Policy will be reviewed annually, unless we later decide that a different period is appropriate. You can view a copy of the current Policy on the Scheme website at <https://rmpensions.co.uk/rm-scheme-documents/> or you can request a copy of the current Policy at any time by using the contact details below.

15. QUERIES/CONTACT US

If you have any questions regarding this Policy or the way we use your personal information, you can contact our Scheme secretary by email at RMPlc@vidett.com or on 0118 207 2900.

This Policy was updated and adopted by the Trustee on 25 November 2025.
